What is this type of insurance?

Directors' and Officers' Insurance (D&O) protects the insured person from claims for losses caused during performance of the function in a company.

What is insured?

- ✓ Compensation for losses caused by the insured person during performance of the function in a company
- ✓ Compensation for losses related to securities caused by the insured company
- ✓ Fines, penalties or sanctions granted by the public administration body in connection with the claim
- ✓ Defense costs related to the claim
- ✓ Costs of investigating the claim
- ✓ Costs prior to the claim
- ✓ Costs to provide for the monetary guarantee (but not the monetary guarantee as such)
- ✓ Loss mitigation costs (incurred to minimize the risk of lodging a claim, or the extent thereof)
- ✓ PR/goodwill costs associated with claim
- ✓ Personal costs
- ✓ Urgent costs

The specific scope of insurance is stated in the insurance policy in which not all the insurance risks mentioned in this document must be always negotiated.

What is not insured?

- ✗ Bodily injury and property damage
- ✗ Fraudulent behavior, intentional violation of law, embezzlement, criminal activity
- ✗ Claims related to unauthorized receipt of profit, reward, royalties or other benefits
- ✗ Insured versus insured claims raised in the United States
- ✗ Losses ensuing from the public offer of any company's own securities (IPO)
- ✗ Recognition of an obligation to compensate for losses beyond the legal framework

A complete list of exclusions is mentioned in the insurance policy and in the insurance conditions.

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! The insurance indemnification is limited by the indemnity limit and sublimits stated in the insurance contract
 - ! The insured participates in each insured loss by negotiated deductible
- All restrictions on insurance cover are listed in the insurance contract and in insurance conditions.*

Where am I covered?

- ✓ The insurance covers losses incurred in the territory specified in the insurance contract and which are subject to jurisdictions specified in the insurance contract.

What are my obligations?

- To answer all questions regarding the insurance risk in a true and fair manner (e.g. in questionnaire)
- To inform the insurer about a change in the insurance risk (including information in the questionnaire)
- To be compliant with legal regulations and safety or technical standards
- Without undue delay notify the insurer of an occurred loss and follow insurer's instructions
- Effectively defend against non-relevant claims

All obligations are stated in the insurance policy, in the insurance conditions and in the Civil Code.

When and how do I pay?

The insurance contract specifies the date on which the policyholder is obliged to pay the premium and the bank account on which the premium shall be paid. The Insurer does not charge any fees beyond the premium.

When does the cover start and end?

The start and end of the insurance cover are stated in the insurance contract. If the insurance is agreed for an indefinite period, it is automatically renewed annually unless it is terminated at least six weeks before the end of the respective annual insurance period.

How do I cancel the contract?

- The policyholder may terminate the insurance by giving notice that:
 - is delivered to the other contracting party at least six weeks before the end of the Insurance period
 - is delivered to the other contracting party in two months from the conclusion of the Insurance Contract and that has an eight-day notice period
 - is delivered to the other contracting party in three months from the announcement of the occurrence of an insured event and that has a month-long notice period
- The Policyholder has the right to withdraw from the insurance contract without giving any reason within 14 days from the date of its conclusion, if the insurance was concluded in the form of distance selling
- The policyholder has also the right to withdraw from the insurance contract if the insurer has breached the obligation laid down in §2789 of the Civil Code.

The insurance may be also terminated for other reasons stated in the Civil Code and / or in the insurance conditions.
